ELF Annual Meeting Features Tile Artist

More than 100 people welcomed artist Marion Grebow to Eules and were captivated by her work at the Eules Library Foundation 2008 Annual Meeting in September.

Grebow visited Eules to learn more about the city, its places and historical events, and to meet its people as part of her research for the Foundation's tile wall mural project. After touring the city, meeting with Historical Preservation Committee members and city leaders, Grebow shared information about her work along with images of the variety of tiles that she has created. These and other images of her creations can be seen at her gallery at gallery.mac.com/mariongrebow. Her talent is exceeded only by her passion for her work. Both were clearly evident as she shared her journey that has brought her to her career as an artist working mostly with non-profit organizations.

Grebow brought several tiles that have been completed for this project that are currently on display in the library. Mr. & Mrs. Eules (pictured at right) is available for sponsorship.

What is ELF?

The Eules Library Foundation ("ELF") is an independent non-profit organization of caring community members who give gifts of time, energy, ideas & financial support to the library and the community.

Why is ELF important?

The success of the Eules Public Library depends greatly on our friends in the community. With just a few dollars or a few hours, ELF makes our library a vibrant place of learning, enjoyment, enlightenment and fun.

In addition to gifts of artwork, ELF supports the Summer Reading Program and other programs not covered by the Library's Annual Budget.

President's Corner

by Sandra Crowley

As we approach a new year, I'd like to take a moment to reflect on 2008.

This year, we held two book sales that combined to raise more than $4,000 for the library's Summer Reading Program and other projects.

We are particularly committed to supporting the Summer Reading Program which continues to grow and to introduce new readers to the wonder of books. For the last two years, the Eules Library has offered an adult program as well. What a wonderful gift parents give their children when they share a love of reading!

The Foundation also officially kicked off the campaign for our next art project—a hand-painted tile wall mural that celebrates the history of Eules. We want to insure that future generations have a permanent reminder of the people who built this community and who set the standard that has left such a vibrant legacy.

Our artist visited in September and is as excited about this project as we are.

Community response has been tremendous—but then Eules has always been supportive of the library, the Foundation, and our projects. It is truly a joy to work with such a wonderful city.

To date, we have raised more than $25,000. We hope to have this mural completed in late 2009 or early 2010. We'll keep you posted on our progress!

Now, let's look ahead to 2009. We will have two more book sales, and we'll continue to accept donations for the tile wall mural. We hope you'll join us!
